COLORADO STATE UNIVERSITY STUDENT TAKING AN AIMS COMMUNITY COLLEGE COURSE

This signed form is to be submitted to the Cashier's Office at Aims Community College (after normal admission) as part of the registration process to avoid required down payment , late fees, or dropping of classes by the College. The Schedule of Classes contains enrollment instructions.

Aims Community College and Colorado State University
Cooperative Registration Agreement

Purpose: To provide students enrolled at either institution the opportunity to complete UNDERGRADUATE COURSES at the other institution without additional tuition assessment.

Eligibility: Students must be enrolled at the home institution in resident-instruction courses (i.e. not Continuing Education) and be registered for 12 academic credits (9 credits for summer) for the corresponding term for which they are registering at the host institution.

Aims Community College	Colorado State University
Fall semester	Fall semester
Spring semester	Spring semester
Summer Session	Summer Session

Course restriction: Registration for a maximum of one undergraduate, resident instruction (i.e. not Continuing Education) course not to exceed five credits per term is authorized. Registration will be subject to the availability of the course and the student meeting the prerequisites.

Tuition: Tuition and student fees for the course taken under this agreement will not be charged to the eligible student. APPLICABLE COURSE FEES AND ONLINE COURSE FEES WILL BE PAID BY THE STUDENT. If the student is determined to be ineligible for this cooperative registration agreement, applicable tuition and student fees will be assessed, and the student will be responsible for payment of these charges.

Verification: Aims students will obtain a certifying form from the Aims Admissions and Records Office which will identify them as eligible for the privilege. This will be provided to the Admissions Office at Colorado State University by the student where appropriate registration materials will be issued and registration completed.

Colorado State University (CSU) students will sign an agreement form at the Aims Business Office/Accounts Receivable at the time of registration. Normal Aims procedures for admissions and registration will apply. At the end of the term, final verification of the student's eligibility will be sent by the home institution registrar to the host institution registrar. Eligibility is determined by the student's total number of enrolled hours at the home institution. Completion of the course is not used in determining the student's eligibility for this agreement.

By signing this agreement, I am verifying that I am eligible for the Cooperative Registration Agreement between Aims Community College and Colorado State University. Further, if at any time while enrolled in courses at Aims Community College or Colorado State University I become ineligible for the program as determined by either institution, I will indemnify Aims Community College or Colorado State University for any costs incurred including tuition and fees.
