HISTORY

In the summer of 1966, a citizen's committee representing all of Weld County's school districts recommended the formation of a junior college district. In January of 1967, voters of the district overwhelmingly approved the establishment of Aims Community College. Two months later a governing board was elected and it, in turn, selected Dr. Ed Beaty as the College's first president.

Aims has continued to grow and expand to serve the needs of a student population which has increased from 900 in the fall of 1967 to more than 14,000 served annually by the three Aims campuses in Greeley, Fort Lupton and Loveland as well as the Continuing Education Division.

In 2007, Aims' fifth president, Marsi Liddell, presided over the celebration of the College's 40th anniversary. Aims addressed the future with expanded teaching facilities on two campuses. These facilities served to assist in continually improving technology and a never-ending desire to meet the needs of our students. Further, land for a new campus was purchased on I-25 at Berthoud. Aims continues to grow.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES' MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of Aims Community College is to help students achieve their learning goals and objectives through

PURPOSES

Aims Community College was established in accordance with the laws of Colorado as a post-secondary educational institution whose purposes are to provide:

1. General educational offerings designed to prepare students to make intelligent choices in all aspects of life, integrating skills, knowledge, and values to promote personal and community growth;
2. College parallel courses preparing students to transfer to four-year colleges or universities;
3. Career and technical education courses preparing students for initial employment, further education, or advancement in employment;
4. Developmental education for those needing to advance their skills in preparation for college level study or advancement in the work place;
5. Advising and assessment services to enable students to more clearly define their educational goals; and
6. Community services and continuing educational offerings for adults of all ages.

VALUES

The educational offerings and services of Aims Community College are based upon the belief that the primary obligation of the public educational system is to assist in the development of individuals for meaningful, productive lives in a democratic society. As part of this goal, the college embraces the following values:

1. We focus on supporting learning and innovation. Aims is a Learning-Centered College, meaning that all actions and decisions by administration, faculty and staff are based on how they will affect student learning.

2. We believe in building relationships, both with students and with members of our greater community. The strength of these ties enhance the ability of the college to fulfill its mission
3. We are a community college and we're here to serve the community. Aims is ready to meet the educational needs of our ever-changing society, through academic programs and workplace training.
