TO APPLY:

1. Complete an Aims Scholars Scholarship application.
2. Submit a copy of your final high school or most recent college academic transcript.
3. Awards will be made for remaining semesters of academic year in which application is received.
4. Awards will not be made for prior terms.
5. All awards are subject to availability of institutional funding.

Although the Aims Scholars Scholarship is not based on financial need, state and federal laws require that we coordinate awards with all other grants, work-study or loans you are receiving.

ALL students must meet the following program requirements to apply:

1. Declare an eligible college-level degree or certificate program with Admission & Records.
2. Enroll for at least six credits (half-time status).
3. Demonstrate at least a 3.0 cumulative grade point average based on the most recent of:
 - a. Aims Community College minimum of six earned undergraduate level credits for courses in which grades (A-F) are assigned, or
 - b. High school graduation (final transcript required), or
 - c. Prior college (transcript showing at least six earned undergraduate credits required)
4. Not in default on a federal student loan or owe a repayment of a federal grant and/or loan.
5. Students must have a high school diploma, or GED, or proof of a completed home-schooling program or demonstrated ability to benefit through the Accuplacer Test.
6. Not on financial aid suspension at Aims Community College.
7. Not exceeded maximum credits limits for degree and certificate programs.

Awards are based on expected full time enrollment. Recipients enrolling less than full-time status will receive awards as indicated below:

Enrollment Status	Award Amount Per Semester
Full-Time - 12 or more credit hours	$900
Three-Quarter Time - 9 to 11.9 credit hours	$675
Half-Time - 6 to 8.9 credit hours	$450
Less than Half-Time - 1 to 5.9 credit hours	-0-

Students are responsible for tuition, course fees, and books that are in excess of eligible award as indicated according to Aims' standard payment schedule.
