EARLY CHILDHOOD PARTNERSHIP OF WELD COUNTY
Scholarship Fund

Do you need financial assistance for classes? Do you need financial assistance for ECE classes? United Way of Weld County, Promises for Children and the Aims Foundation are looking for you!

Each recipient of the Early Childhood Partnership of Weld County Scholarship will be selected based on the following established criteria:

- Applicant must be pursuing an Early Childhood Education Degree and/or Certificate, or pursuing an increase in level for an Early Childhood Professional Credential.
- Only courses that can be applied to this degree, certificate or credential level are eligible for the scholarship.
- Applicants must be working in an Early Childhood Program (childcare home provider, preschool or child care center) in Weld County at time of enrollment in Aims classes, which will be verified by United Way of Weld County, Promises for Children (UWWCPFC).
- Applicant must be willing to provide update of status in two years’ time and therefore must agree to have their information shared with the UWWCPFC as part of their agreement.

This scholarship may be awarded to the same student in successive semesters until completion of graduation, certificate or increased level of an Early Childhood Professional Credential, provided that funds are available and the recipient maintains eligibility. All awards are processed through the Aims Foundation.

Scholarship funds up to $1500 per student will only be applicable for tuition, fees and books and will be coordinated through Aims Financial Aid for application to the student’s account.
