Accessing Databases at Aims Kiefer Library

This tutorial will walk you through accessing databases at Kiefer Library.
Accessing Proquest Tutorial

The steps and screen shots displayed in this tutorial will show you how to access articles in the research database Proquest through the Aims Kiefer Library. The orange arrows will point to things we discuss in each screen shot. You can access all databases at Kiefer Library using the same method.
How to Get to the Databases

On the Aims Community College Main Web Page, under “Quick Links,” choose “Kiefer Library.”
Under “Finding Information,” click on the “Database and Article Search” link.
We are going to use the database Proquest as an example. Click on “M-P” here and then scroll down the page to find Proquest.
Database and Article Search Page

Press the blue button here to scroll down the page to find Proquest.
Accessing Proquest Off Campus

- If you are off campus, choose “Off Campus Access” to the right of the Proquest link and follow the instructions on the off campus access page.

Click on the link titled “Off-Campus Access”
Login Screen for Off Campus Access

(Use your Aims Web Services username and password to login.)
Note: You can not be logged in to your E-mail and the databases at the same time.

Enter the same username and password you use to check your e-mail at Aims.

Here are some links to help you with logging in, if you get stuck.
Off Campus Access Page

Click on “Proquest Direct” and you will be taken to the Proquest Basic Search Page.

If you need assistance, please call the library at (970) 339-6227, (303) 301-5388 ext. 6227, or send an e-mail to reference@aims.edu.
On Campus Access to Proquest

- If you are on campus, click on the “Proquest” link and you will be taken to the basic search screen.

Click here to get to the Proquest search screen if you are on campus.
Basic Search Screen for Proquest

This is the basic search screen that appears after you have chosen either Off-Campus or On Campus access.
Accessing Proquest

- You will use the same steps no matter which database you wish to use.

- If you have any questions about using our databases please contact the Library Staff.
