AIMS COMMUNITY COLLEGE POLICY

SECURE AND VERIFIABLE DOCUMENTS

The policy of Aims Community College is to ensure compliance with state law. This policy is to ensure that Aims Community College is compliant with the Secure and Verifiable Document Act, C.R.S. § 24-72.1-101, et seq., as required by C.R.S. § 24-72.1-107. When Aims Community College or its affiliates provide a service for which the recipient is required to provide proof of identification, the college or affiliate organization shall not accept, rely upon, or utilize an identification document unless it is a secure and verifiable document.

“Secure and verifiable document” means a document issued by a state or federal jurisdiction or recognized by the United States government and that is verifiable by federal or state law enforcement, intelligence, or homeland security agencies. The matricula consular and other identification documents issued by foreign governments are not considered “secure and verifiable” documents.

The President shall implement and maintain procedures to carry out the intent of this policy.
